Dear Fred:

Just a few words to acknowledge receipt of the transparencies. Ollie Read has taken off for the Audio Fair in Los Angeles and will return here by February 14. He passes on all cover material so Bill Stocklin of RTN and I must hold up until he returns.

However, the transparencies are really terrific, but I am afraid that the composition may give us some difficulty fitting it on either cover. As you may have noted from both books, the exact ratio of our cover photographs is vertical more than horizontal. There is one shot that will work and I have my fingers crossed that Ollie may like it as much as I do.

Tell Ken, WSMOT, that ^{his} work is top-notch and ranks with the best we have seen here. His transparencies are equal to those of Peter Samerjan who works out of Hollywood.
